Democratic Ticket.

For Railroad Commissioner,

C. C. M'CHORD

For Circuit Judge,

M. C. SAUFLEY

For Commonwealth's Attorney,

JOHN SAM OWSLEY, JR.

THE Methodists seem more certain of having secured the millions of dollars they set out to raise for the new century than they are of saving the number of souls they aimed to gather in. The contention that the church had made one million and a half converts in the last four years is sharply disputed by Dr. Buckley, of New York. Methodism, this staunch churchman asserted, was declining in the east, and there was no use disguising the fact. It is to be hoped Dr. Buckley is mistaken. The country has been in the habit of looking to the Methodist church as the evangelizing arm of Protestantism. But if the salt of Methodism has lost its savor, what is to be done? It may be assumed, however, that even if Dr. Buckley is correct, the church will be in no wise discouraged. It will doubtless press forward with renewed energy to recover the lost ground in its ancient assurance that the church militant is to become the church triumphant.

THE President's policy of appointing Negroes to federal offices in the South and also in the North received a staggering blow in the Senate Committee on Commerce, when the nomination of Crum to be Collector of Customs at Charleston, S. C., was turned down by a vote of 8 to 6. Two republicans, Perkins, of California, and Jones, of Nevada, and all the democratic members of the committee voted against Crum. Other republicans were prepared to do so if their votes were needed to defeat him. The sentiment of the committee with the exception of perhaps four republican Senators, was strongly against naming a Negro to so important an office, especially in view of the fierce opposition of the white residents of South Carolina, regardless of politics.

GEN. BASIL DUKE says the President offered him the Federal Judgeship over a week ago. He had intended to keep it secret, but the President mentioned the tender himself to Mr. Kehoe. The old Confederate, who fought so bravely under John H. Morgan, ought to be ashamed of the course he has pursued and doubtless he is, else he would not have attempted to keep the offer a secret.

THERE is plenty of money in circulation if you can get hold of it. The amount now in the United States is, according to the treasury department, the largest ever reported as to total stock and circulation, being $2,355,738,834, or $90,000,000 more than a year ago. The increase in circulating medium since 1896 has been $766,000,000.

FRIDAY the House broke all previous records in the matter of private pension legislation. It was the last opportunity of passing pension bills at this session and the calendar was cleared not only of House but of Senate bills, 325 in all being passed. Three hundred and twelve is the highest previous record made.

SINCE a great many society ladies find that they can not belong to the order of Daughters of the Revolution, an exchange suggests that they get up a new organization of "Mothers of the Next War."

THERE are just two more weeks of Deboe, Moss and Irwin, thank the Lord, and then the Congressional delegation will be democratic with the exception of Boreling from the 11th district.

HAWAII has asked congress for $6,600,000 for public works this year. It has taken Hawaii almost no time to learn that the United States treasury is legitimate loot.

POLITICAL.

The Army Staff Bill was signed by the president and is now a law.

Gen. Joe Wheeler has declared himself in favor of pensioning former slaves.

Andrew Carnegie offered to pay the sum of $300,000 in cash, demanded by Germany of Venezuela in addition to the amount previously agreed on.

The Indiana Senate killed the bill to permit Sunday base ball playing. Judge T. R. McBeath, the new reporter for the Court of Appeals, has been sworn in. The protocols have all been signed and the blockade of Venezuelan ports has been raised by the powers. The President sent to the Senate the name of George B. Cortelyou to be Secretary of Commerce of Labor. John Alsbury, who ran against Lincoln for the Legislature in Illinois, died in the poor asylum at Buffalo, Ill. The Omnibus Public Building Bill carries $10,000 each for the government buildings at Henderson and Maysville. Attorney General Knox says the legislation affecting trusts as passed by Congress is satisfactory to the Administration. William Jennings Bryan fiercely assailed Mr. Cleveland and the democrats who left the party in 1896 in a speech at Columbus, O.

At a big meeting of Negroes in Washington, President Roosevelt was enthusiastically proclaimed a second Abraham Lincoln.

James M. Richardson, editor of the Glasgow Times, and one of the State Prison Commissioners, will, it is said, be a candidate for Congress in the Third district next year.

Some of the democratic Senators are trying to induce Mr. Tillman to refrain from delivering his promised speech on the president's Negro appointments, but there is little probability that he will desist.

Politicians at Mt. Sterling say this will be the democratic ticket: For governor, Beckham; for lieutenant governor, Renick; for auditor, Hager; treasurer, Richardson; secretary of State, McChesney; attorney general, Carroll; clerk of appellate court, Chinn.

Senator Fortune, of Jeffersonville, created a sensation at Indianapolis by announcing that a lobbyist had approached him with an offer for four votes. The lobbyist asked that the votes be secured in the interest of a garnishee bill pending in the Indiana Legislature.

Carnival of Crime.

From the Somerset Journal we learn that a meeting of wholesale liquor dealers and distillers held at the Galt House in Louisville, resolved that "The Carnival of Crime," which has recently held sway in Louisville, is due largely to a few disreputable saloons, and expressed hostility towards every saloon conducted in violation of the law.

But in as much of the judges of the criminal courts of this country have testified that three-fourths of the crimes committed in the United States are the direct or indirect results of the liquor business, the people do not need an opinion on the subject from the Reputable Resolvers.

What is the difference in effects on a man, who drinks whiskey in a "disreputable saloon, and one who drinks in a law abiding saloon?

How any man can call a business Reputable, that causes more misery, crime and poverty than everything else combined, is a mystery to any one free from Mammon and Bacchus.

It is further stated that "The President of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers is instructed to prepare a model license law for submission to the Legislatures of the various States to the end that improper persons may not be licensed to retail liquors."

When the devil submits a code on morals and religion to the Almighty, will this act of arrogance be equaled?

No amount of license tax; no amount of reasoning; no amount of condemnation of little dogs by big leaders and heads of the army of man-destroyers can make a business reputable or right that has cursed every family in the United States; coming as close, at least, as first cousins. I challenge the exception. JOS. BALLOU.

THIS AND THAT.

Mark Hardin bought of Ansel Baugh a milk cow for $30.

The Standard Oil Company has declared a dividend of $20 per share.

Leonard Tipton was drowned by the overturning of a boat in Estill county. A Philadelphia diamond broker was robbed of $7,000 worth of diamonds at Chicago.

Williston, N. D., is the coldest spot in the United States, the temperature there being 42 degrees below zero.

The blizzard has crippled the railroads in various parts of the country. In Wisconsin the temperature dropped to 23 degrees below.

Dr. J. I. Tharp, a physician of Washington, Ga., was shot and killed by Frank Rucker, who alleged the doctor had insulted Mrs. Rucker.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr. H. Higgins, of Melbourne, Fla., writes, "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by all Druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Room for rent. Mrs. E. Higgins.

WAYNESBURG.

Mumps are still prevalent here. Mad dogs have made their appearance again in this community. The sale of Tom Braswell was well attended and much property was disposed of.

The young folks had quite a nice time at the party at Mr. S. H. Gooch's Saturday night.

Richard Jacobs and Will Routen had an altercation last Saturday, resulting in Routen getting an arm broken. Rev. W. R. Davidson filled his appointment here Saturday and Sunday, delivering some excellent sermons.

The wet weather has put the roads in very bad condition which makes traveling very unpleasant in this part of the country.

The Macabees have put a nice fence around their hall, which improves the looks considerably. If we only had some sidewalks now, we would begin to look rather "townish."

Revel Gooch and sister, Miss Etta, entertained a number of their friends Saturday evening at their home in a most charming manner. Every one went away feeling happy over having been present.

E. B. Caldwell & Sons are doing a splendid mercantile business at this place. They can supply their customers with most any thing they call for. Gooch & Sons, who carry a full line of city stocks, are also doing a good business.

We had quite a nice time at our box supper Wednesday night. Several dollars were made up for the benefit of the school library. Little Van Singleton has the mumps; also Brinkley Gooch and several of the other children in the neighborhood.

Dr. A. K. Caldwell purchased of Dutch Gooch a fine saddle horse. The doctor is a fine fellow in every way, both as a physician and as a citizen, but he thinks quite a lot of his horse. He can be seen at most any time of day or night, but in all cases, be the call urgent or not, he travels just the same, never exerting his horse.

Little Miss Etta Gooch, the child telegraph operator, has been down with mumps, but is out again. Miss Ora Williams is teaching school at Highland, where she seems to be giving great satisfaction. Mrs. Pitman has returned from Junction City, where she has been so long on account of small-pox. W. M. Gooch went to Stanford yesterday to be treated for appendicitis by Dr. O'Bannon.

Mrs. H. Singleton and Mrs. Lee Doty went to Lexington Saturday. Mrs. Dr. A. K. Caldwell has been visiting her friends at Middleburg. Mrs. W. M. Jackson, of Chattanooga, is with her father, E. B. Caldwell, Jr., and family. Mrs. Caldwell is a beautiful and talented lady. She leaves soon to join her husband in West Virginia, where they will make their future home. We regret very much to give her up as she is our leading society and church worker, having served the Sunday school both as secretary and treasurer for five years.

J. N. Hise, agent for the Continental Tobacco Company, purchased of George G. and J. C. Hamilton, of Bath county, 225,000 pounds of tobacco for $2,100.

G. S. Gaines sold to Roberts, of Indiana, a black gelding for $175, and a bay gelding for $150. E. T. Beazley bought of S. G. Burton 25 ewes at $1. Richard Alexander made a record in hog profits. Last year he bought a lot of hogs for $45. After one year's feeding he sold out the bunch a few days ago for about $400.—Advocate.

The best physic. "Once tried and you will always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says William A. Girard, Pease, Vt. These Tablets are the most prompt, most pleasant and most reliable cathartic in use. For sale by Craig & Hocker.
